

I oppose the restrictions on faxing to members of associations. They have chosen to join and pay dues, and therefore, should be able to receive informative faxes from the association.